

Alpine® WSG Update

Announcing new application instructions for

Alpine® WSG Water Soluble Granule Insecticide EPA Reg. No. 499-561

Features of the new Supplemental Labels

- New application sites added!
 - New pests added!
 - New low maintenance rates* added for certain pests
- *New maintenance rates are intended for low pest pressure or preventative applications. High rates are recommended for cleanouts, new accounts and heavier pest pressure (greater than low pressure).

New Application Sites or Pests

- Animal/Livestock housing added for house flies
- Stored Product Pests and application procedures added
- Turkestan cockroaches added

New Maintenance Rate (10 g per gallon)

- Asian lady beetle
- American and German cockroaches
- Bed bugs
- Carpenter Ants
- Centipedes/ Millipedes
- Crickets
- House flies

Complete Pest List and Usage Rates

Pests	Finished Dilution (grams per gallon)	Pests	Finished Dilution (grams per gallon)
Ants (excluding Pharaoh)	10	Asian Lady Beetles and Centipedes	10* to 30
Bean Plataspids (Kudzu Bugs) and Brown Marmorated Stink Bugs	30	Bed Bugs	10* to 30
Carpenter Ants	10* to 20	Crawling Insects/Pests including: Pillbugs, Spiders (excluding: Brown Recluse), and Turkestan Cockroaches	30
Crickets, Cockroaches (American and German), and Millipedes	10* to 30	Fleas	10
House Flies	10* to 20	Paper Wasps and Yellowjackets	30
Stored Product Pests (Confused Flour Beetles, Granary Weevils, Lesser Grain Borers, and Warehouse Beetles)	10	*New maintenance rates are intended for low pest pressure or preventative applications.

Always read and follow label and supplemental label directions. Alpine is a registered trademark of BASF. The label change goes into effect immediately. Supplemental labels have been issued, and may be used in conjunction with products that may not have these directions printed on the container. See CDMS (www.cdms.net) to download supplemental labels and see any states that have not yet approved these labels.